

NUCA COMPETENT PERSON TRAINING SEMINARS

The Competent Person Training Seminar covers the CAL-OSHA Title 8, Section 1540 through 1541.1 requirements pertaining to excavations, trenching and sloping techniques, protective systems and soils classification with an introduction to confined space entry safety.

We offer monthly seminars at a cost of $125.00 per person including a comprehensive handbook, a certificate of completion, continental breakfast and lunch.

We also provide seminars at your facility. There is a 15-person minimum per day requirement at a cost of $125.00 per person plus travel expenses (outside of Southern California). Your company provides the training facility complete with overhead projector & screen, TV & VCR; wipe off board or chalkboard and lunch arrangements. The course length is approximately 7-1/2 hours.

NUCA CONFINED SPACE ENTRY TRAINING

The Confined Space Entry Training Seminar is intended to provide managers, foremen, competent persons, and workers with basic information regarding entry into confined spaces. It's purpose is intended to create an awareness of the hazards associated with confined space entry, to help workers understand the procedures that must be followed when entering confined spaces, and to provide managers with basic information necessary to establish a confined space entry program.

This course will assist participants with the following:

- Identify confined spaces
- Demonstrate knowledge of confined space entry requirements
- Identify confined space hazards
- Set up a basic confined space entry program

We offer bi-monthly seminars at a cost of $125 per person. The cost includes a comprehensive handbook, a certificate of completion, continental breakfast and lunch. We also provide seminars at your facility. There is a 15-person minimum requirement at a cost of $125.00 per person plus travel expenses (outside of Southern California). Your company provides the training facility complete with overhead projector & screen, TV & VCR, wipe-off board or chalkboard and lunch arrangements. The course length is approximately 5-1/2 hours.

There will be a written test given at the end of each seminar to show comprehension of material covered. Please contact Kelley Malloy at 310-327-5554 for further details and scheduling.
